

Date: Thursday 21 February
Venue: One Great George St, Westminster, London
| Time: 08.45 – 17.00

Effective leadership process safety in the downstream oil industry

Organised by Energy Institute and UKPIA

- 8.45 Registration & refreshments
- 9.15 Welcome from the chair
Judith Hackett, Chair, Health & Safety Commission
- 9.25 Keynote speech – regulators' approach post Buncefield and Texas City
Kevin Myers, Director of Hazardous Installations, HSE
- 09.55 Keynote speech - industry response
Chris Hunt, Director General, UKPIA
- 10.25 Risk based process safety
Matt Siddall, Heads of Refinery Environment, ConocoPhillips
- 10.55 Refreshment break and exhibition viewing
- 11.15 Texas City – what's changed?
BP speaker to be confirmed
- 11.45 US approach to regulation post Texas City
Ron Chittim, API
- 12.15 Q&A panel session
- 12.45 Lunch
- 13.45 Oil & Gas UK - step change in safety programme
Bob Kyle, Safety Issues Consultant, Oil and Gas UK
- 14.15 Responsible Care in chemicals sector
Diana Montgomery, Deputy Chief Executive, Chemical Industry Association
- 14.45 Refreshment break and exhibition viewing
- 15.15 Industry leadership on safety: what's needed to deliver effective results
Tony Traynor, chair of Process Safety Leadership Group
- 15.45 Guidelines and technical standards
Speaker to be confirmed
- 16.15 Wrap up discussion with panel & audience
- 16.45 Summary and conclusion
- 17.00 End of conference